

BROOKINGS

QUALITY. INDEPENDENCE. IMPACT.

Brookings Corporate Council Donor Privileges

Contributions to the Brookings Institution support independent research and educational activities that help shape domestic and foreign policy. Brookings is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. All contributions are tax-deductible as allowed by U.S. law.

Chairman's Circle $100,000 AND ABOVE

- A customized program of benefits designed in collaboration with the Senior Director of Corporate & Foundation Relations.
- A private meeting with Brookings President Strobe Talbott.
- Opportunities to request briefings with Brookings scholars during the year.
- Two invitations to an exclusive reception and dinner with Strobe Talbott and members of the Brookings Board of Trustees and International Advisory Council featuring a distinguished guest speaker.
- Full benefits of the President's Circle, as listed below.

President's Circle $50,000 - $99,999

- An opportunity to request the participation of a Brookings scholar at a corporate event.
- Opportunities to request three briefings with Brookings scholars during the year.
- Opportunities to join Strobe Talbott and other Brookings scholars on an exclusive international study tour.
- Invitations to exclusive conferences in the U.S., Europe, and Asia featuring Brookings scholars and other distinguished participants.
- Full benefits of the Leadership Circle, as listed below.

Leadership Circle $25,000 - $49,999

- Opportunities to request two briefings with Brookings scholars during the year.
- Two invitations to attend a Brookings Council Lunch featuring President Strobe Talbott.
- Full benefits of the Ambassador Circle, as listed below.

Ambassador Circle $10,000 - $24,999

- Invitations to nationwide events, including the Corporate Council Events series, featuring Brookings scholars addressing timely economic, foreign policy, and governance issues.
- Two invitations to attend a Brookings Board of Trustees dinner in Washington, DC featuring a distinguished guest speaker.
- Reserved priority seating at Brookings public events.
- Book-of-the-Month offerings of selected current publications by Brookings scholars as well as complimentary copies of other Brookings Press publications upon request.
- A subscription to the Brookings Alert, the Institution's weekly email notification service about Brookings news and events.
- Prominent acknowledgment in the Brookings Institution Annual Report Honor Roll of Contributors.

Please note that meetings with Brookings scholars will be scheduled for Leadership Circle, President's Circle, and Chairman's Circle members, based on scholar availability.

For additional questions regarding the Brookings Corporate Council, please contact Mary Ellen Fraser, Senior Director of Corporate & Foundation Relations, at (202) 797-6014 or mfraser@brookings.edu.